DETAIL PROGRAM

Day 1: Hanoi arrival

Arrive Hanoi, our driver and tour guide will pick you up then transfer to your hotel in Hanoi. Depending on your arrival time, you may have time to explore a little of downtown and enjoy a stroll around Hoan Kiem Lake by yourself.

Overnight at hotel in Hanoi.

Day 2: Hanoi

Lying at the heart of Northern Red River Delta, Hanoi – the thousand-year-old capital city of Vietnam has so many charms to attract tourists both domestic and international. With numerous beautiful lakes, romantic shady boulevards, French colonial styled architectures, and hundreds of old temples and pagodas, the city brings to people an extremely peaceful feeling despite the certain busy life and chaotic traffic as a metropolis of a developing country. Apart from that, the traditional street foods also contribute to the attraction of Hanoi. Strolling around the Old quarter, tasting some delicious authentic Hanoi foods, drinking a local cold beer, or enjoying Vietnamese local coffee are common things that visitors would love to do during their stay in Hanoi.

See our optional tours in Hanoi to have plan for your days in this city or select ones and put into your tour.

Overnight at hotel in Hanoi.

Day 3: Hanoi – Halong Bay

After breakfast our guide and driver will pick you up for heading to Hoi An. Passing Hai Van Pass we have more time to taking nice pictures from the pass. Seeing Non Nuoc stone carving village, where the local skillful sculptors create many marble products which are exported to many countries worldwide. You can visit the Cham museum where displays approximately 300 sculptures, among which some are made from terracotta from the period between the 5th and 15th.

Overnight at hotel in Hoi An.

Day 8: Hoi An

The charming Hoi An town belongs to Quang Nam province, located in the South Central Coast region of Vietnam. With its very favorable position right on the north bank near the mouth of Thu Bon River, this ancient town was once an important trading port which traded widely both with the countries of Southeast East Asia and with the rest of the world. The cultural interference has much influence on the local architectures making this World Heritage Site a charming unique destination.
