DETAIL PROGRAM

Day 1: Hanoi arrival

Arrive Hanoi, our driver and tour guide will pick you up then transfer to your hotel in Hanoi. Depending on your arrival time, you may have time to explore a little of downtown and enjoy a stroll around Hoan Kiem Lake by yourself.

Overnight at hotel in Hanoi.

Day 2: Hanoi – Lao Cai

Lying at the heart of Northern Red River Delta, Hanoi – the thousand-year-old capital city of Vietnam has so many charms to attract tourists both domestic and international. With numerous beautiful lakes, romantic shady boulevards, French colonial styled architectures, and hundreds of old temples and pagodas, the city brings to people an extremely peaceful feeling despite the certain busy life and chaotic traffic as a metropolis of a developing country. Apart from that, the traditional street foods also contribute to the attraction of Hanoi. Strolling around the Old quarter, tasting some delicious authentic Hanoi foods, drinking a local cold beer or enjoying Vietnamese local coffee are common things that visitors would love to do during their stay in Hanoi.

See our optional tours in Hanoi to have plan for your days in this city or select oneto add into your tour.

In the evening, our guide will pick-up you and transfer to Hanoi railways station for night train to Lao Cai.

Overnight on train to Lao Cai.

Day 3, 4: Lao Cai – Sapa

Located in the northwest mountainous area, about half an hour drive uphill from Lao Cai station, Sapa never loses its place as one of the most attractive destinations in the North Vietnam. The town overlooks a beautiful valley of cascading rice terrace, creating a wonderful view from above, especially on clear and sunny days when it is not covered by thick mist rolling across the peaks. Hill tribe people living in town and surroundings embellish the area with their lovely colorful dress; they are very friendly and well equipped with English that could be your reliable travel mate during your trip in Sapa.

See our optional tours in Sapa to have plan for your day in this hill town or select one to add into your tour.

Overnight at hotel in Sapa.

Day 5: Sapa – Hanoi

Free day until late afternoon, our car will pick-up and transfer to Lao Cai station for night train to Hanoi.

Day 6: Hanoi – Halong Bay

Meet with local tour guide upon arrival at Hanoi train station in the early morning. Check in a small standard hotel nearby the station to get a bath and breakfast (local dish). Then get on bus to Halong Bay. Arrive Halong Bay around 12:00, get on board. Cruise to contemplate the beauty of the Bay while having lunch. Keep cruising and other activities like kayaking, swimming, taking photo.

Day 9: Hue – Hoi An

After breakfast, 8:00AM our guide and driver will pick you up for heading to Hoi An. Passing Hai Van Pass again we have more time to taking nice pictures from the pass. You can stop to see Non Nuoc stone carving village, where the local skillful sculptors create many marble products which are exported to many countries worldwide; and visit the Cham museum(entrance fee is not included) where displays approximately 300 sculptures, among which some are made from terracotta from the period between the 5th and 15th.

Overnight at hotel in Hoi An.

Day 10: Hoi An

The charming Hoi An town belongs to Quang Nam province, located in the South Central Coast region of Vietnam. With its very favorable position right on the north bank near the mouth of Thu Bon River, this ancient town was once an important trading port which traded widely both with the countries of Southeast and East Asia and with the rest of the world. The cultural interference has much influence on the local architectures making this World Heritage Site a charming unique destination.
